HOLIDAY SEASON IS HERE AGAIN!

OR PLANS BIG BASH

The holiday season is here again and true to form, the OR is planning another big party. Dr. Poellot has again offered her home for the site and Mr. Dick has volunteered to bring a turkey (despite his previous statements that he would refuse to go to any Christmas party at Dr. Poellots home). A scavenger hunt is tentatively planned to entertain any attending children. A gift exchange is not currently planned.

MERRY CHRISTMAS
AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

A special heartfelt wish goes out to the entire Blome family from all of us at Chinle, for a wonderful holiday season and a joyous year!

STOCK MARKET REPORT

Chinle stock is once again searching for food and eating anything in sight, including dead morning glory vines. The Pinon Bus continues to be present despite the cold weather, but appears to be doing little business. As the holidays approach vendors have been attacking the hospital in droves. Rugs have been particularly prolific, but no baskets have been seen as yet. One Navaho was quoted as saying glumly "Too many weddings." The selling is expected to get even more intense as Christmas approaches.

TIME TO PLANT BULBS

GLORIA'S BULBS ARRIVE!

Despite delays by UPS, Gloria's 125 bulb order from Breck's finally arrived. She is busy digging up her yard even now in the hope of some spring flowers.

Rumors continue of both cuts in services and personnel at Chinle hospital. The public health board is meeting to review the proposed changes. The housekeeping department has been especially upset. General services likewise has been producing consistently incomplete instrument sets, felt to represent their disturbance. Dr. Heath in Anesthesia simply said "I've been expecting this for a long time." Mr. Dick said "Guess with her gone we'll have to start doing more cases."
