CHINLE RINGS IN THE NEW YEAR!

QUIET START TO THE YEAR

The new year was rung in quietly here in Chinle, as most party-goers left town for the holiday season.

The movie theatre in Window Rock has once again opened for business. So far there are no inside reports as to its cleanliness or quality.

The previous hospital plan of replacing full time employees with contract help has been placed on hold. Apparently this was found out to be illegal. Turmoil continues, however, as yet another ACU supervisor has resigned (the 7th in four years). Unknown parties had drawn a swastica on her door and dumped garbage in her yard. Ms Taylor announced a plan to allow ACU to be "self-determined" (i.e. no supervisor). She therefore postponed cutting the house supervisor positions.

STOCK MARKET REPORT

Chinle showed a marked increase in starving dogs this month. An increase in rain and snow made food scarce.

Excitement prevails in the Chinle hospital lab as JCAH announced their visit was moved up to February 28th. The rest of the hospital is not expected to come up for review until May. Lab in-fighting is at an all time high as recent "gram positive" stains have been read out as E. coli.

Mrs. Matern lost out on the job as Tuba City OR supervisor to another nurse with Indian Preference from Alaska IHS. Reception to the news has been mixed.

CLIFF GETS NEW TRUCK

CLIFF GETS NEW RIDE!

Gah Hastiin Tsoh, as he is known locally, finally bit the bullet and bought a bright red ford pick up truck to replace his res rocket. Perlinda assisted by checking out the engine (to the great surprise of the car salesman).

There was great excitement as Church's Fried Chicken is scheduled to open a new branch in Chinle at the site of the old Burr's Chicken place on January 19th.

Tiffany has continued to stir the pot writing copious angry memos. Her latest attack was on Dr.s Smith and Bagley. Informed betters are placing their money on the docs.

Computer mania remains rampant in Chinle. The newest locums CRNA is versant in both MAC and IBM machines but is unfortunately only here for 3 weeks.
